

LLD

(Low Level Design)

Variables used:

```
int Customerid;
String Customername;
int balance;
int previous_transaction;
```

- customerid and Customername is used for providing id and name to customer name respectively
 - balance is used to check balance of customer
 - previous_transaction is used to see previous_transaction done by customer
- //tight Coupling

```
Bank_Account obj = new Bank_Account("Manank", 00001);
```

- Creating objects of the Class and accessing their properties and behaviors.
- Switch case is used for executing the choiced number.